Message from the Headteacher

Dear Parents and Carers

We have had an extremely busy week at Saltersgate with lots of additional events and celebrations as well as some changes to our normal routines! The children have handled these changes brilliantly and have shown bucket loads of enthusiasm for all of our extra-curricular activities.

We have been taking part in anti-bullying week and learning how to show respect to each other and be a good friend. This has involved activities such as writing class pledges and making friendship bracelets. It was also fabulous to see so many of you wearing odd socks on Tuesday! Today our school has been a sea of yellow and cosy pyjamas to raise money for Children in Need. We thank you for your donations, which totalled over £280!

Unfortunately the emergency building work that has had to take place in our Nursery building requires one more day to complete. This is to ensure that the toilets are accessible and that Nursery is safe, clean and ready for the children. Therefore, Monday will continue to see Nursery full time children in the reception Gruffalo's classroom, along with the part time children that have been attending for sessions this week. Nursery will be open as usual to ALL PUPILS from Tuesday 19th November.

Next week we will be sending out information on events taking place over the Christmas period and important dates for your diary.

Have a relaxing weekend,

Mrs Anderson
